Investing in Dreams

Hello Soro Optimist!

Autumn! There are just so many reasons to love the season - where to even begin? Right now, the weather is about perfect, don't you think? Leaf peeping season is upon us, and there is no better time to take in the beautiful colors of our landscape. And, lucky us, it's time for our Fall District Meetings! I would like to invite you to your District Meeting, that's correct, your meeting. This year each District will be holding their own meeting and sharing the same educational platform across our Region, but no worries, we will all be receiving the same information.

All five of our Districts will be holding their events on different weekends, so if you are not able to make it to your Districts meeting, you may certainly attend another's, but remember you will need to register. Please contact that District Director for more information. Please note the following dates and locations and be sure to mark your calendars.
